PROBLEM STATEMENT

To write a C++ program to generate the mirror image of a binary tree by interchanging the left and right children of every node. The program displays the original and mirrored trees and verifies the mirror operation by mirroring the tree twice and displaying the restored tree