PROBLEM STATEMENT

Develop a C++ program to represent offices as vertices and possible fiber-optic links as weighted edges. Apply Prim's algorithm to connect all offices with minimum total cable cost. Display the selected edges, running total cost, and final total cost.